

Chevenry (Chevy) Arnold founded CEA Consulting, Inc. (CEA) in April 2006 to provide corporate finance advisory services to companies with revenue under $10 million. She also assists middle-market investment banks and private equity firms with transactions on a contractual basis.

Ms. Arnold has advised start-up to Fortune 500 companies during her investment banking and management consulting careers. She has assisted management teams in streamlining business strategies, preparing business plans and investor memorandums, developing financial models and performing business valuations.

Prior to founding CEA, Ms. Arnold was a Vice President with The Lenox Group LLC (Lenox), a middle market investment bank in Atlanta, where she raised capital and performed merger and acquisition advisory to companies with revenues under $100 million. Before joining Lenox in May 2003, she was a Vice President in the Mergers & Acquisitions practice at Ernst & Young Corporate Finance LLC (EYCF). While at EYCF, Ms. Arnold worked on several consumer products, manufacturing and financial services sell-side transactions, as well as numerous strategic advisory assignments.

Prior to EYCF, she was an Associate in the Global Corporate Finance practice at Arthur Andersen LLP where she gained valuable experience working on cross-border M&A transactions as well as senior debt, mezzanine and equity capital raises. Before Arthur Andersen, Ms. Arnold worked as an Associate for Wachovia Bank N.A. and Wachovia Securities, Inc. During her time at Wachovia, she did rotations through the Leveraged Finance, Investment Banking, and U.S. Corporate divisions.

Before earning her MBA, Ms. Arnold spent four years in management consulting, working in the Healthcare Consulting practice at Ernst & Young LLP and the Technology practice at Andersen Consulting LLP.

Ms. Arnold graduated from the University of Florida with Honors in 1993 with a BSBA degree in Finance and a minor in Economics. She earned her MBA from the Goizueta Business School at Emory University in 1998.
